

Counting and Numerals

Rainbow Room Weekly Lesson Plans for May 16-20, 2022

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Concept	We use numbers to count items.	When counting we begin at the number one.	We use one-to-one correspondence to count items.	We can also use counting to measure time.	The written form of numbers are called numerals.
Circle Time and Story Welcome Songs Name/Letter Recognition Game	Book: Miss Spiders Tea Party by David Kirk Activity: How many friends are in class today?	Book: One Lonely Seahorse by Joost Elffers and Saxton Freymann	Book: Count with Me by Andy Mangrum	Book: Go Away Big Green Monster by Ed Emberly	Book: Press Here by Hervé Tullet
Discovery Activities	Wood Numbers Animal Sorters	Number Peg Boards Pyramid Stackers	Popcorn Counters Wood Beads	Wood Numbers Magnet Tiles	Number Peg Boards Chalkboards
Art	Painting with Watercolors	Baking Soda and Vinegar Paintings	Painted Numbers	Baking Muffins	Drawing with Markers
Music Interaction and Group Games	Song: 5 Little Monkeys	Song: 14 Cupcakes	Song: 5 Little Ducks	Song: 5 Balloons	Song: 5 Green and Speckled Frogs